Free Masonry Making Good Men Better

June 3rd 2010

GREETINGS....FROM THE EAST.....

The business meeting for June went very well. The moral of the Brethren was high and everyone seemed to enjoy the fellowshipping. Brethren it seems that finances and monetary considerations are always a sensitive and emotional topic for discussion and at the meeting, I believe that we openly answered a lot questions.

I would like to be the first to admit that communicating on a computer is somewhat difficult for myself.

That being said, we here at Bailey are looking more into communicating more over the internet, please be open to the idea, we will not leave anyone behind. A sincere Thank You to all that have offered me the opportunity to learn Masonry, also to look at my inner self and ask these questions:

What does Masonry really mean to me? What do the rituals and symbols really signify? Am I a better man because I am a Mason? Have I really aligned myself spiritually with our creator?

Looking forward to seeing you all soon,
Doug
